Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-002226

Dear Grace Deng (Washington State Standard):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on September 19, 2023, in which you seek "all documents in case 19-RC-325227, Underwood Fruit and Warehouse Company, LLC d/b/a Mount Adams Fruit, as of September 19, 2023." You did not assume financial responsibility for the processing of your request.

We acknowledged your request on September 20, 2023.

Your request is denied in part and granted in part, as explained below.

After conducting a search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, it is confirmed that the requested case, Underwood Fruit and Warehouse Company, LLC d/b/a Mount Adams Fruit, Case No. 19-RC-325227, is a recently filed, open representation case before the Agency's Region 19 office. As such, I have determined that because certain records responsive to your request are part of an open investigative file, they are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). That is, given the open status of the requested case pending proceedings in the Region, your request is denied, in part, in that the investigatory records in the case file are being withheld in full at this time pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

Your request is granted to the extent that I have attached the formal records in the case (49 pages), which at this time are the petition, initial letters to the parties, counsel notices of appearance, and Order Rescheduling Hearing, and they are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations regardless of the open or closed status of a case. No information has been withheld from these records.

Please note that Exemption 7(A) protection is “temporal in nature.” Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep’t of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, that is, a certification of results has issued, a bargaining representative has been certified, or the matter is otherwise closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of this case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlr.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: <https://www.nlr.gov/case/19-RC-325227>.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category C, as a representative of the news media, in that you qualify as a person “actively gathering news for an entity that is organized and operated to publish or broadcast news to the public.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(vii). Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request.

You may contact William T. Hearne, the FOIA Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at (202) 273-0139 or by email at william.hearne@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison is:
